Last Modified on 14/08/2017 10:01 am AEST

1. Getting Started

To remove the pay advices, you need to have a registered Schedula account. If you do not have an account, please contact your Appointments Officer from your registered Association.

2. Downloading Unread Pay advices

Once you login to Schedula, on the dashboard page you will see unread pay advices if you have any, under the Unread Pay Advices area.

The screenshot shows the Schedula dashboard interface. At the top, the 'schedula' logo is on the left, and 'Logged in as Stuart Badger' with a 'Logout' button is on the right. Below the logo is a 'Dashboard' dropdown menu. The main content area is divided into several sections:

- Upcoming Appointments: A section with a downward arrow icon and the text 'The following table lists your upcoming appointments.' Below this is a table with columns: Competition, Type, Date, Time, Teams, Venue, and Your Status. The text below the table reads 'You have no upcoming appointments.'
- Unread Pay Advices: This section is highlighted with a red box. It features a dollar sign icon and a table with two columns: 'Pay Period' and 'Download'. The table contains three rows:

Pay Period	Download
28/08/2015 to 10/09/2015	Download
11/09/2015 to 24/09/2015	Download
25/09/2015 to 8/10/2015	Download
- Availability: A section with a calendar icon and the text 'You have indicated that you are available all day Saturdays, all day Saturdays and from 8:00am onwards on Sundays.' Below this is an 'Update Availability' button and a calendar for August 2017. The calendar shows days with color-coded availability: green for 'Available' and yellow for 'Partially Available'. A legend explains the colors: green for 'Available', yellow for 'Partially Available', and no color for 'Days with no colour markings means you are unavailable.'
- News and Messages: A section with a RSS icon and the text 'There are no messages to display.'

Click on the Download button to download the pay advices.
